

TDC NEWS RELEASE

Nov. 10, 2022

Staff update: Lee County Visitor & Convention Bureau welcomes new operations coordinator

LEE COUNTY, Fla. – Lee County Visitor & Convention Bureau (VCB) welcomes Nicholas Gallant as its new operations coordinator.

Among his duties and responsibilities, Gallant will provide administrative and clerical support for the VCB, including TDC meetings. He will assist with visitor inquiries received by the communications department, provide media kits to journalists and build customer relationships with hotels, vendors, restaurant and attractions partners.

Most recently, Gallant worked as a customer service specialist at Lee County Domestic Animal Services.

A 2020 graduate of Florida Gulf Coast University, Gallant has a bachelor's degree in business management.

A longtime resident of the Lee County, Gallant graduated from Mariner High School in 2016. He enjoys traveling to new cities, exploring the outdoors and adopting new pets.